A WHITEWASHED SEPULCHER.

By a vote of 40 to 21 the Assembly has adopted the minority report of the committee investigating the charges against Assemblyman Bruner. The Democrats voted against it, while only five Republicans opposed it. With the majority report nothing whatever was done. It was not even read. The members apparently fell over each other in their anxiety to whitewash their besmirched colleague.

The majority report said all that could be said for Bruner. It made every possible excuse for him. It showed that evidence had been admitted in his favor which would not have been permitted in a court of law. The minority report is a laborious effort to make the best of a bad case—such an argument as might proceed from an attorney who does not believe in his client's innocence, but desires to secure him as light a sentence as possible. That the minority were by no means confident of their "client's" innocence is seen by the closing paragraph of their report, which is as follows:

Considering all the evidence in the case we cannot but entertain a reasonable doubt as to the charge that Mr. Bruner intended to appropriate the money to his own use. Such being the case, we desire to give the accused the benefit of the doubt, but in doing so we would charge him with culpable negligence in failing to confide the whole matter to some of the many friends in the Assembly. Furthermore, he is deserving of the censure of this Assembly in not having secured himself, and the body to which he belongs, against the scandal which has been spread broadcast over the State.

In other words, Bruner should have covered up his tracks more carefully. He deserves censure, not for what he did, but for being found out. That is the gist of this precious report. And that is what the Legislature, by a vote of two to one, has adopted. It is well to tell that they are about to adjourn. One would suppose that they would be ashamed to sit there and look each other in the face. The disgrace brought upon the State by Bruner's action is less than that which will attach to it by this practical endorsement of his crime by the Republicans of the Legislature—all of them, save five.

These legislators, in this whitewashed Assemblyman Bruner, have actually set a premium on bribery and corruption. Their action is a tacit promise to future bribees that, if caught, they will not be punished; that the Legislature will stand in with them. The anxiety displayed by the members to rush this matter through with as little discussion or publicity as possible, says more than this to all who look below the surface. It tells that many of these men were in the same fix as Bruner was, before he was detected. They feared that, if the investigation were pushed too far, it might touch some of them in some places. And so they were very glad to have a chance to vote for Mr. Bruner's innocence and get the matter out of the way.

What a disgraceful episode! How can these legislators hold up their heads when they return to their constituents? They will probably say that they gave the accused man the benefit of the doubt. But there was no reasonable doubt. Even the minority report only goes so far as to "entertain a reasonable doubt." The majority of the committee had no doubt whatever—only pity. The affair is one of the most disgraceful in the history of State Legislatures.

All the whitewash that any committee can pour over Mr. Bruner will not change public opinion regarding his heinous offense. He stands before the people of California as a "whitewashed sepulcher," fair to look upon when only the whitewash is visible, but within, hideous with the stains and odors of a moral offense—an offense against all personal decency.

Bruner did not commit a crime under the laws of the State. He could legally sell his influence to aid any man to get an office, but he did violate every line of the code of moral decency, and made it worse by lying about it.

He will not try to disprove this by a suit against the Examiner.

In another column we publish an editorial from the Examiner, urging the closing of poolrooms in San Francisco. A dispatch announces that the new ordinance prohibiting the sale of pools on horse races, except at places where actual racing takes place, went into effect there yesterday. All poolrooms, except one, closed in conformity with the law, and after the bookmaker of that establishment was arrested it was also closed. The arrest was made for the purpose of making a test case in the courts.

The committee of the Legislature in the celebrated "waste-basket" case has reported that the money had come from the Southern Pacific Company, but could not say who handed it, or for what purpose. It seems rather strange that the money could not be traced into the hands of those who used it.

GOING A LITTLE TOO FAR.

Secretary Blaine has received a reply from Gov. Nichols of Louisiana to the dispatch which Mr. Blaine sent him on the 15th inst. regarding the killing of the members of the Mafia in New Orleans. Gov. Nichols shows that action was taken against particular individuals and that race or nationality did not enter as a factor in the disturbance. Most of the persons killed were American citizens.

There is absolutely no excuse for an international question here, and it is both unreasonable and absurd to try and make one out of it. The bombastic-Furioso-like ravings of excitable Italians in this country will not, it is to be hoped, receive any endorsement from the Italian government. There is no comparison whatever between this affair and the outrages on Chinese in Wyoming, for which the United States paid indemnity. There it was a race war; here it is not.

While the action of the New Orleans people was illegal, it was, in great measure, excusable. The chief cause for regret is that they stopped short of the jury. They were afflicted with a cancer, for which there was no cure but the knife. They had tried other means and had failed. Shall they be too severely blamed for adopting a heroic remedy? If their action was illegal, how shall that of the murderous society of the Mafia be characterized? A great number of the members of that society are Italian subjects. Surely, we have a counter-claim on Italy for outrages committed by these men.

We do not anticipate that any serious international complications will arise from this affair; but, should Italy presume upon the fact that it is the third largest power of the world, while the United States is about the nineteenth, Uncle Sam will know how to maintain his dignity and honor and rights. The American people have a venomed and malice which Italian orators, who call themselves Americans, have been spewing forth in this country during the past few weeks, but there is an end to forbearance, and that end has almost been reached. The more reasonable and cooler-headed class of Italian-Americans should endeavor to induce their vituperative countrymen to let up a little all along the line, or there may be trouble. This incident has been magnified beyond all reason. We don't want to fight, but if any nation is burning for a war, why will they try to accommodate it.

In recommending for another term the present board of directors of the Public Library, the Mayor has done a judicious thing, and suitably recognized a body of public officers who have performed service of value to the community. The board consists of Messrs. G. A. Robinson, F. H. Howard, E. W. Jones, H. J. Hanchette and J. M. Davis. Among these names will be recognized those of men especially fitted for their work. The library is organized under the charter, and its management is therefore more stable than it could be were the directors elected by popular vote, and subject to be turned out with every election. The institution has already reached a degree of efficiency which makes it an object of municipal and local pride, and with the old board in a position to continue its labor and carry out its plans, we shall hope for further results in this department of free popular education and healthful mental diversion.

SEVERAL of Great Britain's American colonies are awakening to a realization of the advisability of closer trade relations with the United States. In a recent speech, the Governor-General of Barbados devoted his attention almost entirely to the subject of reciprocity with the United States. On the following day a resolution was introduced into the colonial Legislature for the appointment of a committee to prepare an address to the Secretary of State for the Colonies, setting forth the commercial situation of the island, its trade relation with the United States, and the necessity of prompt action in the direction of a reciprocity treaty.

ARRANGEMENTS have now about been completed for the orange carnival in Chicago. Almost every orange-growing section of Southern California will be well represented, and it is expected that from six to eight carloads of fruit will go forward on Monday. The Santa Fe Company will carry the freight free, but will charge full rates for transportation of those who accompany the exhibit. Riverside will join in the display.

A LARGE party of expectant ghost-seekers were out on Buena Vista street at the solemn hour of twelve last night, but the ghost refused to walk. It was stated, however, that the mysterious female had been seen a couple of hours earlier. Los Angeles has almost all the modern improvements which go to make a great city. We only needed a real live ghost to complete the list of attractions.

The following item, from the Pomona Progress, throws some light on the death-rate of Los Angeles, which northern papers are fond of criticizing occasionally:

The deaths of Frank Ford and Edward F. Houghton in this place last week has once more caused many people who are acquainted with the facts of the deaths to the shameful way that hundreds of eastern physicians have been sending consumptives to this region to get their "off their hands" and thereby to lessen the number of their patients who die.

BRENER read an affidavit in the Legislature yesterday, intended to show that Bledsoe was prejudiced against him, but it failed largely of effect, and Bledsoe made a very spirited answer to the charge.

The President is said to be seriously considering the issuance of a proclamation excluding German beet-sugar from this country, in case the importation of American meats into Germany is not allowed.

THAT Minnesota legislator who introduced a bill forbidding women to wear tight on the stage is getting a general denunciation in the press for his attempt to suppress the legitimate drama.

THERE is an outlook for more trouble between the Portuguese and English in South Africa.

POOL ROOMS.

An Evil That Should be Attacked and Stamped Out.

It is full time that the poolroom evil was attacked and stamped out. The reason why is evident to those who have read the descriptions of the poolrooms and their frequenters that have appeared in the recent issues of this journal. Those who have not become convinced by reading should spend a day about the southern end of Leidesdorff street. They will then see the urgent need of a city put a stop once for all to the nefarious business that has grown to such proportions.

The poolrooms are today the most active agents of vice in the city. They are training up a legion of gamblers and criminals that are already shown on the prison registers.

Any one who watches the throngs that crowd the poolrooms in the busy hours of the day can see the whole sorry before him. Here is the young man who has been brought in by a "router" or a friend just to "try his luck." There is the young clerk who has become a steady customer, seeing his earnings and his savings going rapidly, but confident that he has learned the system whereby he can beat the bookmakers. There again is a shabby lounge about the door, who has lost money and situation, living from day to day on the odds and ends picked up, but confident still that he could win a fortune by his skill in "picking horses" if he could only get the money to bet with. There are all gradations in the lights of the picture, from the gambler's "big money" to the "rags" indicated by the three. It is filled out by the records of the clerks who have embezzled their employers' funds to throw after their own money.

By the long list of young and adults turned from industry to vagrancy.

The poolrooms have grown so rich and strong by the money of their dupes that they have been able to strangle legislation directed against them. It is notorious that in the present and last Legislature the bills directed against them were killed by coin. Will the poolkeepers have the same success with the same methods in the local legislature?

The poolroom order introduced in the Board of Supervisors last Monday by Mr. Elliott is practically identical with the anti-pool bill that was killed by bribery in the Legislature. It comes in tonight for action on the board. The disposition that is made of it will show whether the tactics that won the fight for the poolkeepers in Sacramento have been successful here also.

There should be no doubt of the fate of the order. It should be passed tonight, and unanimously.

There is no room for argument in the matter. It is a plain question between the good and the bad, and the right and the wrong. If the order is passed the poolrooms will follow the "clock game" and kindred devices into oblivion, and the opportunities for gambling will have to be sought in the back rooms of the city of the police. With the public gambling halls shut up, not one in a hundred of such as now become victims of the poolrooms would ever find the hidden games.

With the public gambling halls shut up, not one in a hundred of such as now become victims of the poolrooms would ever find the hidden games.

There is no room for argument in the matter. It is a plain question between the good and the bad, and the right and the wrong. If the order is passed the poolrooms will follow the "clock game" and kindred devices into oblivion, and the opportunities for gambling will have to be sought in the back rooms of the city of the police. ### Army Officers Report on the Indian Outlook.

If the Sioux Are Fairly Treated They Will Not Rebel Again.

Last Rites Over the Remains of the Late Gen. Johnston.

The Cruiser San Francisco to Be Sent to Chilean Waters—Secretary Foster and the Silver Brick.

By Telegram to The Times.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—[By the Associated Press.] The War Department is taking advantage of the cessation of hostilities among the Indians of Dakota and has been engaged in gathering authentic information as to the probabilities of another outbreak this spring. A careful investigation has been made by officers serving as agents at the Pine Ridge and Rosebud agencies, and their reports are not altogether reassuring. In substance these officers assert that there need not be trouble—just as the Government desires. An outbreak can be prevented, or, on the other hand, a very little will fan the slumbering feelings of the aborigines into a flame. That is to say, the whole case rests upon the care exercised in the distribution of the appropriations.

If the Indians get promptly all that is due them, and there is not too much haggling, there will be peace. But the moment the Government tries to pinch the Dakota tribes, the hitherto friendly Indians, who do not feel very complacent over the late visit to Washington, will, it is predicted, surely revolt.

These Indians are at present in the majority in the two Dakotas, as most of the hostile chiefs have been taken by an Indian show for an European trip and the remaining hostiles are thus short of leaders. They realize perfectly well that the chiefs are not held as hostages, but have gone as a matter of enterprise and so they would not be necessarily deterred from an outbreak through fear of retaliation on their fellows. These absent chiefs, however, are perhaps the worst fighters of the nation.

THE LAST RITES.

Funeral of the Late Gen. Joseph E. Johnston.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—[By the Associated Press.] Funeral services over the remains of the late Gen. Joseph E. Johnston took place in this city this morning. The ceremonies were devoid of ostentatious or unnecessary formality. There was no display of uniforms or battleflags or military trappings, and the family of the deceased declined the request of a number of Confederate veteran associates to participate formally. But there was a large attendance of distinguished persons. There were no services at the residence, but just before 11 o'clock the remains were taken to St. John's Episcopal Church, accompanied by the family and near friends.

The funeral party was met at the church by the honorary pallbearers. The body bearers consisted of members of the ex-Confederate Association of this city, all men who fought under Gen. Johnston during the war. Along the sidewalk were about 100 men of Robert E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, without uniform, and they stood with grey heads bared as the body was borne between their ranks. The casket was a plain one covered with black cloth and without ornamentation. The silver plate bore the inscription "Joseph E. Johnston, born February 3, 1807, died March 21, 1891."

St. John's Church was crowded to its utmost capacity. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Douglas, rector of the church, and were confined to the simple Episcopal burial service for the dead. At the conclusion of the services the remains were removed to the Baltimore and Potomac station and left here on the 12:10 train for Baltimore.

BALTIMORE (Md.), March 24.—When the body of Gen. Johnston arrived here his old soldiers were at the railroad station and bared their heads as the coffin was borne past them. The remains were laid at rest by the side of his wife, in Greenmount cemetery.

Ordered to Chile.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—It is the purpose of the Navy Department to have Admiral Brown, in command of the Pacific station, transfer his flag from the Charleston to the more suitable cruiser San Francisco, and to dispatch that vessel to Chile at the earliest possible date. Both Admiral Brown and the San Francisco are now at Mare Island, Cal., and the San Francisco, it is expected, will be ready to sail within two weeks. If there should be need of another vessel in Chilean waters the Charleston will follow the San Francisco within a fortnight. When Admiral Brown reaches Chile he will replace Admiral McCall, who will rejoin his flagship, the Pensacola.

Groff's Farewell.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—Commissioner Groff, of the General Land Office, whose resignation has been accepted by the President, was at the office today and held an informal reception, which was attended by every clerk and messenger attached to the office. Groff will leave Washington tomorrow for his home in Montana. It is reported that the commissionership has been tendered to ex-Representative Carter of Montana.

The Intercontinental Railroad. WASHINGTON, March 24.—The only matter considered today by the Intercontinental Railway Commission was the perfection of plans and arrangements for sending three surveying parties to South and Central America to begin work in determining the route of the proposed road to South America. Nearly all the arrangements have been decided upon. The first work will commence in Guatemala.

That Silver Brick Again.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—Secretary Foster has sustained the action of the Superintendent of the Mint at Philadelphia, in refusing to accept for coinage the silver brick presented for the purpose of testing the legality of the Treasury's silver policy.

Arranging the Postal Subsidy.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—Postmaster-General Wauwacker is busily engaged in the preliminary work necessary to carrying into effect the new

Postal Subsidy Act.

Yesterday he had a long conference with officers of the House Steamship line on the subject, and he has also taken steps to ascertain the views and designs of shippers at all prominent southern ports. Judge Tynes, Assistant Attorney-General for the Postoffice Department today submitted to the Postmaster-General his interpretation of the several sections of the Subsidy act, upon which his opinion has been solicited.

FRENCH SPOILATION CLAIMS.

Payments Begun Out of the Recent Appropriation.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—[By the Associated Press.] Leonard Myers of Philadelphia obtained the first payment from the Treasury in the long delayed French spoliation claims today. The first draft, for $13,000, was issued to Mrs. Mary Ann Buchanan Smith of Philadelphia, a lady 89 years old, whose father John Smith, Jr., was a merchant in Baltimore at the close of the last century and who with his brother, Gen. Samuel Smith, a noted member of Congress from the latter city, lost heavily by French captures. The ship Friendship, for losses on which this appropriation was made, was commanded by John Rogers, then in the merchant service, and afterwards so conspicuous in our navy as Commodore Rogers. Several other payments were made today.

The Kincaid Trial.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—A jury was secured today in the case of Kincaid, on trial for shooting ex-Congressman Taubee. The District Attorney made the opening address.

BOYCOTTING A RAILWAY.

Efforts to Make the Burlington Stop Paying Commissions.

CHICAGO, March 24.—[By the Associated Press.] The board of rulings of the Central Traffic and Trunk Line associations has begun operations under the recent agreement to boycott all connecting lines that continue to pay commissions. The board has sent two or three telegrams to the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy management within a few days claiming to have satisfactory evidence that it has been paying commissions to eastern agents. The Burlington people have replied that, as no specific charge is made, no specific answer can be given; that they have not intended to ignore the agreement, and have paid no commissions to persons not asking for them. They contend, however, that the board has no right to demand a discontinuance of commission-paying without some guarantee that the Burlington will continue to receive an equitable share of passenger business from the East.

CHICAGO POLITICS.

Carter Harrison, Hires a Hall and Goes for Palmer.

CHICAGO, March 24.—[By the Associated Press.] Carter Harrison made his first appearance in public tonight since receiving the nomination for the mayoralty. It was at Central Music Hall, and the place was crowded with his adherents. The meeting proved to be one that is likely to be memorable in Illinois politics, and indirectly perhaps, also in national affairs.

Harrison savagely denounced his fellow Democrats and opposing candidates, Mayor Cregier. The announcement that the newly elected United States Senator, John M. Palmer, is coming to Chicago to work for Cregier's election was received with much disfavor and the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, by the Chicago Personal Rights League to the number of 4000 in mass meeting assembled, that 4000 other members in Chicago, that Gen. Palmer be requested not to interfere with home rule in Chicago as representing no faction but the white people of Illinois.

Gen. Palmer, who is in Springfield, was shown a copy of the resolution late tonight, but refused to talk on the subject until he received official advice from the meeting.

This makes a total of about $416. About $100 more is needed to provide for the necessary expenses. All the contributors who have not yet done so are requested to pay the amount subscribed to some member of the soliciting committee, composed of T. P. Lukens, S. W. Washburn and J. W. Wiley, today, as the money is needed at once for purchasing fruit. There is still time for would-be contributors to make their offerings. It is expected to secure the full amount today.

Mr. Wright, from information obtained yesterday in Los Angeles, states that the representatives in charge of the various exhibits will leave probably next Sunday for Chicago, and arrangements will be made for shipping the fruit a day or so later. The carnival idea has caught on in Chicago, and everything indicates that the affair will prove a big financial success, in which case Pasadena will receive a pro rata share of the profits. The railroad has agreed to transport the fruit free of charge.

TERMINAL TAPS.

Current Jottings Relating to the Rapid Transit.

The private car of A. N. Towne of the Southern Pacific came up on the 5:55 train yesterday evening. Today Mr. Towne's brother, L. W. Towne, who has been spending the winter in Pasadena for the benefit of his health, with his family and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Manahan, whose guests they have been, will leave in a car for points of interest.

General Manager T. B. Burnett and Roadmaster H. J. Stocker were in town yesterday.

Passenger-coach No. 18, will be out of the paintshop on Friday. Its appearance is most attractive. The other coaches will be repainted.

Yesterday evening a corpulent lady of amiable disposition apologetically remarked to a handsome brakeman, as she left the train at California street, "Large bodies move slowly." "Yes, and when they do, the earth trembles," was the ready reply of the brakeman, as he signaled the engineer to go ahead.

A BIG CLIMB.

Wilson's Peak over the New Trail, yesterday morning C. A. Schaff, C. W. Bell and Mr. Elliott, a guest at the Arroyo Vista, went to the terminus of the Terminal road at Altadena on the 7:20 train. From there the trio footed it to Eaton's Cañon, and thence up the new trail and the old Henniger trail to Wilson's Peak.

The Pasadena trail is completed for some distance beyond the Flats, and this portion of the way was covered in a comparatively short space of time. The latter part of the journey was hard climbing, as the clothing of the pedestrians testified. The summit was reached about 2 o'clock. The party went as far as the observatory, and after a vigorous attack on the luncheon which they carried with them, the return trip was made over the same route. Pasadena was reached between 6 and 7 o'clock, and although pretty weary, the trip was unanimously voted a success.

A BLASTED FOREIGNER.

One of the few Passes That Trouble Pasadena.

The English sparrow is a hard bird to down. Cats have feasted on him, gunners shot him, the small boy has trapped, legislatures have framed laws for his extinction and Uncle Jerry Rusk has heaved a book at him. But all to no purpose, and today this pesky foreigner is in Pasadena as impudent and destructive as ever.

But light seems to be breaking. A legislator back in an eastern State has come to the conclusion that the reason the sparrow waxes fat and increases in spite of everything is because he hasn't been investigated. Hence he has offered a resolution, saying a contemporary, "to have a commission appointed to travel around the State, at the State's expense, and ask everybody what everybody knows about the sparrow, after which a long report will be made to another legislature, and then something more terrible will be done to the sparrow if he doesn't follow the example of Capt. Scott's coon and come down before the commission fires off its report. The sparrow may as well get ready to meet his fate. The legislative commission will investigate him and expose all his misdeeds and piratical habits. The sparrow knows he is one of the meanest birds in existence, but before this commission gets through with him he will be convicted of a thousand meannesses he never dreamed of, for the commission will be composed of professional politicians whose life business it has been to expose the faults the opposing candidate didn't know he possessed. The sparrow will have to stand it for the rest of his life."

After the statement at Sacramento got through with Bruner and the scraps in the waste-basket they might turn their attention to the sparrow and by a similar method succeed in exterminating him, in which case the people of this community would be found duly grateful.

SANTA MONICA.

Wild Flower Festival Proposed—General News and Personal.

SANTA MONICA, March 23.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] The wild flowers deck the plains and cañons in great profusion at present, making a stroll particularly delightful to all lovers of flora. A wild-flower festival at Santa Monica would not only be a beautiful and interesting sight, but would prove a financial success to those undertaking the management.

The dime social given by the ladies of the Congregational church on Friday last was largely attended and a great success.

Quite a number of visitors put in an appearance last Sunday, and made the citizens feel as if the summer season was drawing near.

A movement is on foot to bring several large excursions to Santa Monica from Arizona, New Mexico and Texas. When the party talks business to the citizens on the project, he will probably receive proper recognition.

The Casino is full to overflowing, the management being compelled during past week to turn numbers away.
